LOVE SUNK (Krazy Kat cartoon)

Krazy Kat is seen driving a little flivver following Miss Hippo. He tries to attract her attention, but she spurns him. He follows her to her home and after several attempts to enter, he is promptly ejected each time. He is broken hearted.

He comes into a scene wailing at his inability to attract the opposite sex. A magician is mixing a big pot. He inquires of Krazy what the trouble is and Krazy pants that no woman will love him. The magician fills up a bottle from his pot and says, "One drop of this love potion will make any woman fall in love with you." Krazy is elated, he tries the love potion on two flowers and they clasp each other in a warm embrace. He dances gaily to the light of his love.

He pours a drop of this onto a bouquet of flowers, and throws them through his sweetheart's window. She comes to the window and beckons him to enter. Krazy Kat sees that the love potion is doing its work and he pours the rest of the bottle on his sweetheart. She more than falls in love with him. She falls all over him. His sweetheart is becoming mad with love. She fondles Krazy and now he is panic stricken, and escapes from his arms. He rests on the gas jet. His sweetheart by now is uncontrollable. She races around the room, sees a wax statue of Napoleon, embraces the statue and the wax melts. She then turns into a flame and jumps under a shower bath to cool off. She once more finds Krazy, but he escapes with his lady love in pursuit.

They rush back into the scene with the magician and Krazy hides in one of the pots. This time the magician makes a hate potion. Miss Hippo comes in and spies the magician. She falls in love with the magician. Krazy in an effort to save the magician, pours the hate potion over both of them. They promptly beat him up. The end.
